A photograph of a residential street. In the background, there are two-story houses, some with stone walls and others with light-colored plaster. A green arrow-shaped overlay points to a paved area in front of the houses, labeled 'Pickup area'. In the foreground, a large red arrow-shaped overlay points towards the viewer, labeled 'NO STOPPING ZONE' with the instructions 'Do not stop and call your child' and 'Do not park here'. Several cars are parked along the street to the right, and a utility pole with wires is visible. The sky is blue with some clouds.
